

Light and Color

At the November meeting Jan Fiorina shared fourteen of her photos to the members. Many of the photos featured extreme color and reflections, her favorite topics.

Jan is very active with local art groups and has exhibited in art shows all the way back to 1972 at IUP. Her photography training was at IUP and Rhode Island School of Design. Jan enjoys travel photography also, and recently took a class in France.

Jan's photography has been well received. She received awards in the last 7 shows in which she has been entered.

Girl Scouts & DKG

Many AU members raised their hands when asked if they had ever been involved with Girl Scouts. DKG has developed a relationship with Girl Scouts, USA. A DKG Council Patch is now available. Barb Summers contacted a local group and they agreed to give us an update on scouting..

The program, “Girl Scouting Today”, was presented by Carrie Bowman and her mother, Geneva, a scout leader. Geneva spoke about modern day scouting and Carrie, a junior at New Kensington-Arnold, told of her inspiration from scouting. She has received the Silver Award and is working on her Gold Award. She expects to complete it within the year.

Carolyn Sutton read, “It is the Soldier”, in remembrance that today was Veterans’ Day.

Maureen Caputo lead the group in singing, “God Bless America” and the Kappa Delta song.
